ATTLE FOR ANKINGROAD SHAPING UP

Communist Maneuver Said to Have Trapped 140,000 National Troops

ARMY IS HEMMED IN

BULLETIN
Nanking, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The powerful Suchow garrison as begun gutting the city to the relief of 140,000 comrades trapped by the Communists to the south, usually reliable sources said today. The decision to abandon the action of last central China 11 miles northwest of Nanking was taken in a desperate attempt to salvage forces or the defense of the capital. Suchow had stood firm under early a month of Communist assault. But it was outflanked by a sweeping Red drive to the south which cut across Suchow's lines of communication.

Nanking, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Unreliable sources said today that government troops have begun the abandonment of Suchow. The strong government forces there were reported moving south to engage Communist troops which have encircled the Nationalist Twelfth Army Group. The government four days ago ordered the garrison to quit Suchow, but the troops stuck to the city 211 miles northwest of Nanking.

Aircraft on Suchow's large airfield were ordered to leave during the night, these informants said. There was no government confirmation of this report. However, there was no secret about the government's order to the 250,000-man Suchow garrison to get out and fight.

The Suchow defenders were told to go to the assistance of the 140,000 government troops under General Wei encircled about 145 miles northwest of Nanking in the Asian area. Only bright news from Chiang Kai-shek's government came from the northern front. An official dispatch said Chiang's armies reached Paotow, inner Mongolian terminus 320 miles west of Peking.

Meanwhile two ominous signs appeared in Nanking. (1) There is a total absence of war news in the afternoon papers. (2) The government's military spokesman named away from his office. In the past both of these have indicated reverses of considerable importance to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's armies.

Vernacular was reflected in the diplomatic and government circles in this capital. Various diplomatic missions joined the American embassy in evacuating bays and consular staffs to safer areas. The U. S. Navy announced Navy planes would start flying 100 miles from Nanking.

The flight of National government officials from China reached proportions that the control area was reported to have added a resolution that passports given only to those under special orders. The Nanking Evening News said the control area would investigate the large number of legislative and consular Yuan members who have asked for passports.

The same tendency to flee was reported from Suchow, key to government defenses in central China. Reliable reports said many able-bodied men were trying to crowd onto planes flying out the wounded.

Economists Find Good Omens Along The Industrial Front

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Government economists found good omens for the future today in surveys along the nation's industrial front.

These reports included:
1. A new peacetime production record in October—almost double the pre-war average.
2. Fewer strikes the first 10 months of 1948 than in the two preceding years.

3. An 11 per cent drop in prices of farm products since January's postwar peak.

Although there were some dark spots on the industrial picture the total effect appeared cheering. In sizing up the production records, the Federal Reserve Board said last night that last month's output boosted its index three points to a level 95 per cent above the 1935-39 average. The previous high was February's 94 per cent, but the gauge fell to 87 per cent in April and July.

Production of manufactured goods alone, the board said, better than doubled the pre-war mark, with durable items turned out at a rate 130 per cent above the pre-war scale and non-durable goods produced at a 79 per cent clip.

The Federal Reserve credited the record October upswing mainly to new production marks in the steel and automobile industries. The board noted, however, that department store sales were not making their usual seasonal rise and that "prices of foods and some other products declined."

These price drops, while cheering to housewives, have been worrying some economists who think they may be the forerunners of a break similar to the post-war collapse of 1920-21.

But Ewan Clague, commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said no such collapse is in prospect. He told the Eastern Asiatic and College and University Business Offices here yesterday that falling prices at a period like this "can be a good thing—so long as these declines are confined to individual commodities."

"Unethical" Practices In New Car Sales Called "Typical"

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Rep. Macy (R-NY) said today "unethical" new car sales practices which his committee has turned up in Washington are typical throughout the nation.

He reported that his office is getting hundreds of letters daily from all over the country, and added: "The story seems to be the same everywhere—tips to salesmen, low values on trade-ins."

Macy said if his special house subcommittee investigating automobile sales in the Washington area could "help relieve the confusion and misery a little, it will have done its share."

The committee heard evidence two weeks ago that salesmen for two Washington new car dealers took tips of $400 and $500 regularly from their customers. Yesterday, it took a look at the trade-in policies of one of the nation's largest Chevrolet dealers.

Benjamin Ourisman, president of Ourisman Chevrolet, Inc., and the Mandell Chevrolet Co., told the committee his firms follow waiting lists "as far as is humanly possible." He said they do not require that prospective buyers have used cars to trade in.

Two committee investigators testified later that the record of June sales by the two firms showed that buyers without trade-ins had waited an average of 14 months for new cars, while those with trade-ins had waited an average of 50 to 54 days.

The committee also heard more than a dozen persons who had trade-ins testify they had obtained new cars from Ourisman's companies in from three days to about three months.

One witness said he was allowed $5 for a 1936 Studebaker which the company resold for $200. Another said he was allowed $1,352 for a 1947 Chevrolet which the company later resold for $2,100.

BRITAIN STAND IS CHANGED ON NEGEV DESERT

Spokesman Says New Position Does Not Endorse Partition But Gives It More Weight

DEMAND IS WITHDRAWN

Paris, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Britain withdrawing in the United Nations today its demand that the Negev desert of southern Palestine be taken from Israel.

Harold Beley of Britain told the 53-nation political committee Britain is withdrawing her blanket endorsement of the plan of Count Folke Bernadotte, the assassinated Palestine mediator.

The Bernadotte plan would take the Negev from Israel and give her western Galilee. The Jews claim the desert under the 1947 general assembly partition boundaries. Their military forces now occupy western Galilee.

A British spokesman said his country's new position does not endorse the partition plan but gives it more weight than the Bernadotte recommendations.

The spokesman said that, in effect, Britain's position has moved almost parallel to that of the United States. The U. S. has said Israel should be given the 1947 partition plan boundaries, but if she wants more, the state must be prepared to make concessions.

This is regarded as meaning Israel cannot have both the southern Palestine desert of the Negev and western Galilee, which is in northern Palestine.

The Bernadotte plan, proposed in the final report by the slain mediator, would give the Negev to the Arabs and western Galilee to the Jews.

Last year's partition plan gave the Negev to Israel and western Galilee to the Arabs.

Both Jews and Arabs opposed the Bernadotte plan. The Jews did so because they said loss of the Negev would reduce Israel's territory by three-fifths and they needed the area for future colonization.

The Arabs fought the plan because they said it would be a form of recognition of the existence of a Jewish state.

The British spokesman said Britain still insists on Bernadotte's recommendations for making the port terminals and oil installations and the Lydda airport free areas.

He said Britain hoped the final Palestine resolution would be a joint British and American affair. This would bring the British and American policy in the Middle East.

The British spokesman said Britain still feels Israel should not be admitted to the U. N. until a final settlement is reached in Palestine.

Embargo Off At Eight East Coast Ports

New York, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The railroad freight embargo at eight east coast ports went today as shipping struggled back toward normal after the crippling 13-day longshoremen's strike.

The association of American Railroads announced in Washington late yesterday it was lifting the embargo on freight intended for export or coastwise movement.

The ban was removed in the ports of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Hampton Roads, Va., Wilmington, Del., Port Newark, N. J., and Portland, Me.

Improved weather was expected to speed up waterfront recovery along the Atlantic coast from Maine to Virginia, which began to come to life shortly after settlement of the AFL longshoremen's strike was announced Saturday.

Snow and rain hampered activities at several ports yesterday. Most of New York City's 25,000 Longshoremen and checkers worked yesterday on the huge task of unloading the cargoes of 250 vessels which had been tied up here. A big pile of foreign mail began to move, many dockers here worked through the night.

George C. Randall, manager of port traffic in New York for the railroad association, estimated that at least 7,500 carloads of goods were jammed in warehouses in adjacent New Jersey and that the backlog would be tackled today. More than 1,000 freight handlers who had been laid off because of the strike were recalled.

ARGUMENT OVER DIME BANK CAUSES MURDER

Harrisburg, Nov. 30.—(AP)—An argument over a child's dime bank resulted in a Harrisburg father being held today in the Dauphin county jail on a charge of murder.

State Police Sgt. Joseph Pochyba said Sylvester Smith, 25, was arraigned last night before Alderman Joseph K. Armstrong on a charge of murdering Jacob Ulrich, 32, also of Harrisburg.

Ulrich died last night in the Harrisburg hospital after he was found Sunday night with a bullet in his chest in a local park.

Pochyba said Smith told him the shooting was preceded by an argument between the two men in which Smith accused Ulrich, a part-time roomer at Smith's house, of stealing $54.50 in dimes from a

Communists Set Up Hand-Picked Puppet Regime For City of Berlin

One Dead and Three Injured Toll of First Day of Deer Hunting Season In The Area

JURISDICTION OVER ENTIRE GERMAN CAPITAL CLAIMED BY CAREFULLY CHOSEN LEADERS

Berlin, Nov. 3.—(AP)—The Communists set up a hand-picked puppet government for Berlin today, completing the city's east-west division.

Unwilling to risk the results of a popular election the Communists called a meeting of carefully selected leaders. This meeting by a show of hands elected a mayor and a magistrate (executive administration) claiming jurisdiction over the whole city.

This action by the Russian-backed Communists came as the United Nations considered a compromise proposal on currency which could lead to lifting of the Soviet blockade of western Berlin.

The Communist move in the Soviet sector made it virtually impossible for any agreement on currency to be carried out. The currency dispute is a key to the Berlin crisis. The Soviet Union now is in the position of making a gesture in Paris toward settling the Berlin crisis while sponsoring actions in Berlin which would make any agreement reached in Paris impossible of achievement.

The Communists named Friedrich Ebert, namesake son of the first Weimar republic president, as "mayor" of all Berlin.

Ebert promptly declared that the elections set for Sunday in the western sectors were null and void. The Communists have refused to take part in the regularly scheduled elections for all Berlin, remembering their defeat in 1946, and have ordered their followers to boycott the voting in the western sectors.

After the meeting proclaimed a new city government, the demonstration spilled out into the Soviet sector of the city. Some 100,000 persons from factories and stores—which were shut down—marched along Unter den Linden, where Hitler's troops once paraded.

The regularly elected anti-Communist city government, driven from the city hall to the Soviet sector by Communist demonstration, has been sitting in western Berlin.

The Communists, joined by a few splinter elements from other parties, set up their government at a mass meeting in Admirals Palast auditorium in the Soviet sector of the city.

The rally was called with the avowed aim of taking "decisive measures for the protection of a united Berlin"—apparently a move to gain control of the whole city before the election in the western sectors, where about two-thirds of all Berliners live.

An outdoor demonstration of workers marching along Unter den Linden in the Soviet sector was arranged to follow the rally.

Outvoted before, the Communists aren't risking defeat at the ballot boxes this time. They have boycotted the election and Soviet authorities have forbidden voting in the Soviet zone.

Communist-controlled trade unions called upon all workers—in both eastern and western Berlin—to lay down their tools at noon and join the mass meeting.

MAN AND WOMAN ARE KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Northumberland, Nov. 30.—(AP)—A man and a woman were instantly killed here yesterday when their automobile skidded out of control and crashed into the front porch of a house.

Newton Veireck, chief of police, identified the two as Yale B. Brown, 52, the driver, of Cleveland, O., and Mrs. Mildred Leitzel, 30, of Hummel's Wharf, Snyder county.

Veireck said the car was "apparently traveling too fast to make a curve" and skidded more than 100 feet, striking several trees before demolishing the porch.

Alias Santa Securing a Few Bucks—Without Using a Rifle

Alias Santa Claus got a buck today—in fact three of them. But before you rush to the phone to call the law to report a violation of the game laws, maybe we'd better explain.

The bucks in this case were not the horned variety the hunters are seeking in the woods these days, but the long green legal tender issued by Uncle Sam.

The money came in the mail this morning, with that most frequent of all contributors, Anonymous, sending along two dollars, and issued by Uncle Sam.

It is a real treat to see Alias Santa's face light up when the mailman delivers letters like these. He has become quite a mathematician in translating a dollar into so many oranges, or so many pounds of candy, or the start toward some warm clothes and shoes for needy youngsters and older folks throughout the district.

"More gifts like these," Alias Santa said, "will help make Christmas a happier occasion for a lot more folks who are down in their luck. Gee, if everyone could see the happy faces on these needy youngsters when they find some little remembrances awaiting them on Christmas morning—why, I'll bet my good friend, Postmaster Bell would have to put on extra help just to bring all the contributions to my headquarters in the Times-Mirror office."

Dem Legislators To Meet Thursday

Harrisburg, Nov. 30.—(AP)—A resurgent Democratic minority in the state legislature will meet here Thursday, December 9, to pick its leaders and plan its strategy for the 1949 session.

Democratic State Chairman Philip Mathew called a joint caucus of the 15 Democratic senators and 91 house members. It will be held a day after the Republican house members hold their organization meeting.

Heavy Fog Is Still Holding Up Giant Liner

London, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The most persistent fog in a decade fouled up western Europe again today.

The murky cut visibility to a few yards, grounded planes, slowed trains and snarled automobile traffic for the fourth successive day.

For the third time in three days it forced postponement of the sailing of the luxury liner Queen Elizabeth, already 13 days behind schedule on its Southampton to New York run.

It stopped the Berlin air lift, kept ambassadors, generals and ministers of state from keeping important appointments, and made millions late for work.

Weather forecasters said there was little prospect of the fog lifting within the next 24 to 48 hours. The fog blanket extended from the Baltic to Portugal. Most of France and Germany were blacked out. The last trickle of airlift planes reached Berlin late yesterday.

Nearly 100 ships were held up in a 12-mile stretch of the fog-bound Thames estuary.

Visibility was down to 150 yards at Southampton at 11 this morning, the latest time the Queen Elizabeth could catch the tide. The earliest the liner can now get away is 10:15 a. m. tomorrow.

With sailing schedules in chaos, the port was crowded with travelers whose numbers grew hourly.

About 1,600 passengers have been aboard the Elizabeth since a week ago Saturday, when a strike of crewmen in sympathy with American dock workers prevented the liner from sailing.

Plan Hearings On Phone Rate Boosts

Harrisburg, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The Public Utility Commission will begin its hearings on the proposed $25,000,000 a year boost in telephone rate Dec. 15-17.

The PUC said the hearings will be part of its investigation to determine the fairness and reasonableness of the Bell Telephone Company's statewide rate boost.

The proposed new tariff was ordered delayed until July 21 last week by the commission to permit the inquiry.

Members of the commission will sit in during the three days of hearings before Jay Eisman, of Philadelphia, in the PUC office here.

At the same time, the PUC Arthur J. Diskin, of Lehighville, and Lloyd S. Benjamin, of Harrisburg, commission attorneys, have been assigned to assist Chief Counsel Charles E. Thomas, of Stoneboro, in the investigation.

Army Throws a Swank Party For "Cinderella Generals"

Denver, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Colorado's first postwar draftees pinched themselves and wondered if this is the army.

The army threw them a swank party last night. It made them Cinderella generals. Tough old sergeants jumped at their commands. The bras looked on and smiled.

There were dates and bands and songs and comedy. And there was food that never graded a wartime chow line.

When it was all over, they went back to warm hotel rooms instead of the cold tents of wartime induction centers. But today, they head for Fort Ord, Calif., and the realities of basic training.

The party was all a part of the army plan to prove there's a new look in soldiering. But it still was by the numbers. The 22-page script for the affair was big enough to swallow a D-Day field order.

As one inductee put it, "we weren't exactly invited. We weren't exactly ordered. They told us very nicely that we had to go. It was all part of the things we had to do the day we were inducted."

There was little of the old hurry-up-and-wait. The group was told to be on hand at 7 p. m. The party got underway 35 minutes later.

A sergeant lined them up and paired them off with their dates. USO and XWCA hostesses in formal gowns. Sixty-one men were slated for induction but six were turned down at the last moment. Nobody remembered to tell the girls so there were six spare.

New Plan For Mediation In Berlin Crisis

Paris, Nov. 30.—(AP)—A new plan for mediation of the Berlin crisis, devised by a man who wouldn't give up, appears assured of a Big Four trial.

Diplomatic progress on this plan was reported here today even as German Communists massed their strength for an apparent attempt to seize political control of all Berlin.

Juan A. Bramuglia, Argentine foreign minister and retiring president of the United Nations Security Council, is the author.

The plan calls for a neutral commission of experts to handle the technical and procedural phases of the east-west conflict over dual currency and the Russian land blockade.

The United States, Britain, France and Russia would assign their own representatives to stand by in Paris for 30 days to give whatever aid the expert commission might require.

Bramuglia announced Russia agreed to his new plan last night and that he expected formal acceptance from the United States, Britain and France today. They have already accepted in principle.

An American source said the formula was being referred to Washington and that the western powers may reach a decision some time during the day or early tomorrow.

Officials in the U. S. delegation said it was difficult, in the light of developments in Berlin, to hold much hope of a final agreement (Turn to Page Eight)

Body of Two County Soldiers En Route

Word was received here this morning that the body of Pfc. Walter L. Holcomb, formerly of Warren, is en route home from the Pacific area and will be brought to the Lutz Funeral Home for final rites and reinterment.

Young Holcomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Holcomb, former Warren residents now living in Parkersburg, W. Va., was serving with the U. S. Marine Corps when he was killed in action.

According to Times-Mirror records kept during the war years, he enlisted in the Marine Corps in November, 1942, and had seen action at both Iwawa and Saipan before his transfer to Tinian.

Besides his parents, he leaves one brother, H. Chester Holcomb, of Jamestown, N. Y., and an aunt, Octavia Richards, of Buffalo, N. Y. He was a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bowell, 30 Walnut street.

It is also learned today that Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Reynolds, of Sugar Grove have been advised that the body of their son, E. Clayton L. Reynolds, "is being brought home from the Pacific. He was killed in action on Two Jima on February 19, 1945, while serving with the Fifth Marine Division."

Democratic State Chairman Philip Mathew called a joint caucus of the 15 Democratic senators and 91 house members. It will be held a day after the Republican house members hold their organization meeting.

Sen. John H. Dent (D-Westmoreland), re-elected for a new four-year term earlier this month, is expected again to get the nod of his senate colleagues as floor leader.

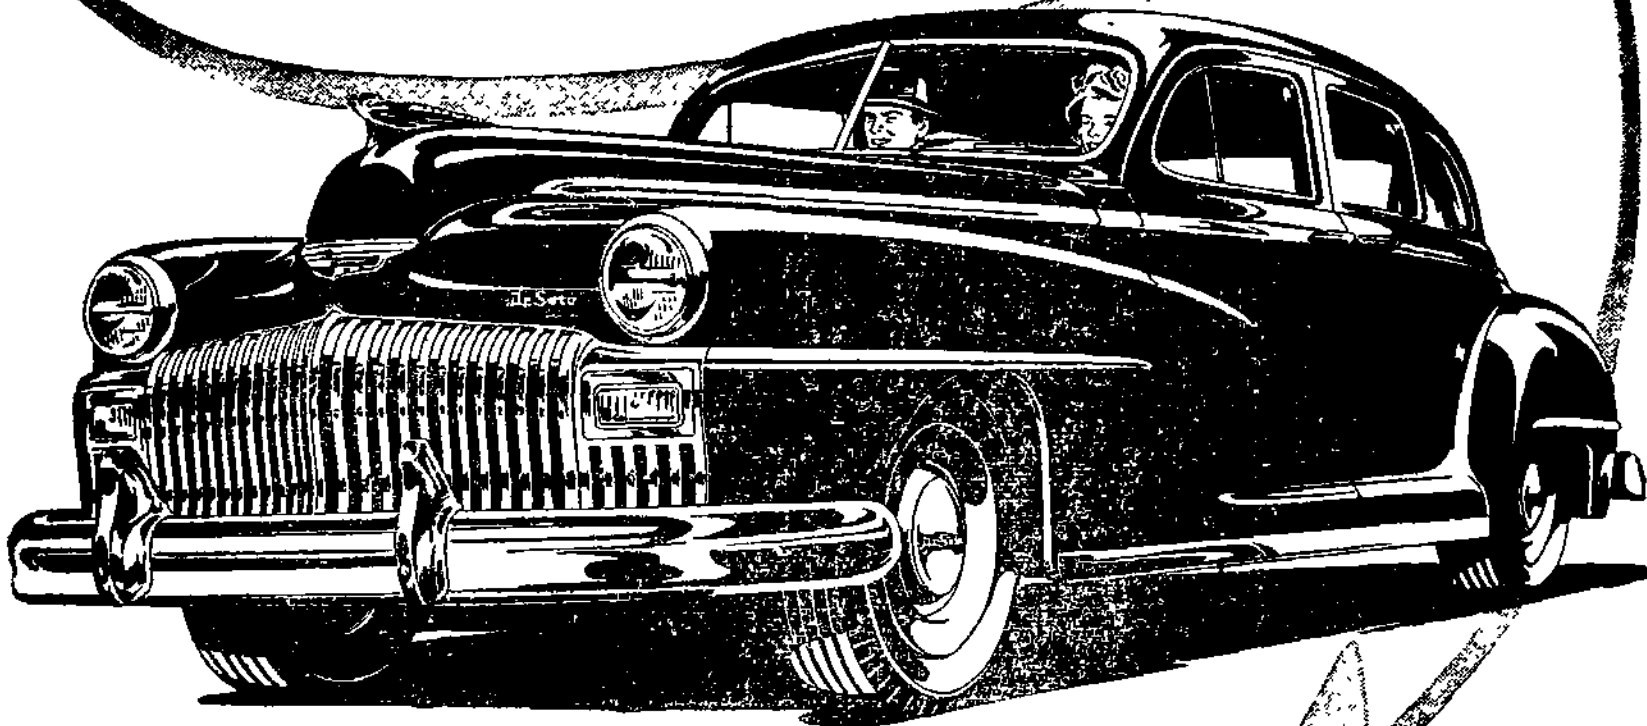

In the house, Rep. H. G. Andrews (D-Cambria) also was in line for re-election as minority leader in the lower branch.

The Democrats picked up 53 new seats in the state house in the November elections, sharply reducing the overwhelming GOP majority of 1947. Party leaders already have served notice they will press hard for enactment of the program outlined in state Democratic plat-

Chorus Group Makes Plans For Christmas

Christmas music was rehearsed at a well-attended meeting of the Warren Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc., held at the YMCA last evening at eight o'clock. The chorus is preparing for appearances during the holidays on both radio and at private shows.

It was announced that rehearsals will be held every Monday evening at eight o'clock until Christmas, and each session will be followed by the serving of lunch.

The chorus was invited by Dick Ross to view a private telecast of Barbershop Quartet activities at the Western Auto Store Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, and it is expected there will be a large crowd in attendance.

Among other activities discussed was the appearance of the chorus with quartets at the Warren State Hospital on the evening of Monday, December 15th, to present a program for patients and staff members. There was also a discussion on the appearance of the chorus in Kane early in 1949, at a Barbershop "parade", as well as the international competition in Buffalo next June.

The officers urge all members to attend all Monday rehearsals in preparation for Christmas activities.

Legion News

The ground work for the formation of the American Legion was laid at the Paris caucus in March, 1919. A final caucus was held at St. Louis in May, 1919, where a constitution was adopted and general policies were formulated. In September, 1919, a charter was granted to the American Legion by Congress.

On October 29, 1942, the Congressional Charter of The American Legion was amended to include in American Legion membership honorably discharged veterans of World War II.

One of the big jobs of the organization has been finding jobs for unemployed veterans. During the depression of 1922, the American Legion found 500,000 permanent and 200,000 temporary jobs for ex-service men.

Hotels and lunchrooms were opened in many cities and more than one million dollars was spent for relief work. It has subsequently aided in other unemployment situations.

The American Legion national employment committee as well as department employment committees are now working with other agencies on plans for employment of the veterans of World War II.

In the spring of 1921, when the French government wanted to invite a party of representative Americans to revisit the battlefields and cities of France, the American Legion was asked to organize the pilgrimage. According to a highly placed French official, France chose the Legion because it felt that the Legion was the most truly representative institution in this country.

There is no rank and no religious or political faction within the Legion. It is truly representative of the American people and constitutes a real cross-section of American life. Enrolled among its members are farmers, salesmen, laborers, mechanics, lawyers, doctors, contractors, teachers, barbers, actors, musicians and students. Many women who saw honorable service in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps are full-fledged Legionnaires.

The American Legion stands for the highest American principles; its members are going forward, hand in hand, for God and country.

PARKING LOT WORK

Borough workmen are busy today digging a ditch for the pouring of a curb for the new parking lot to be constructed at the rear of the Municipal building.

STRAY GIRL HELD

City police were called to meet the 7:45 o'clock Erie bus last evening to detain a 16-year-old girl who was committed to the juvenile detention room in the county jail as an incorrigible. Her case will be handled by county probation authorities.

LOSS OF COAT

Mrs. G. M. Borg, 102 Canton street, reported to police last evening that a lady's grey coat was lost from the borg car early last evening. The coat was found on East Third avenue shortly after it was lost and restored to the owner.

NEW SUPERVISOR

Harold Huntington, Freehold township, has been appointed a supervisor of that municipality by Judge Allison D. Wade, to succeed Fred L. Brown, deceased. The appointment is effective as of November 17, 1948 for the unexpired term of Mr. Brown.

TWO EMERGENCIES

PROTEST DETOUR

Motorists in the Kane area this week are filing protests with the State Highway department concerning the condition of Route 6, which is under construction near that community. Residents living along the route are forced to use the section under construction but it is charged that the contractor has bungled the work several times and the roadway is purposefully being kept in an untravelable condition.

ACCIDENT ON ROUTE SIX

State police of the Corry barracks are attempting to locate the owner of a New York state car which was involved in an accident east of Corry on Route 6 on Saturday evening in which Elliott Danielson, of Pittsfield RD 1, suffered facial injuries and a woman passenger in the New York car was injured to an unknown extent. Danielson notified state police at once after he had hit the back end of the 1933 Dodge coupe while both cars were traveling toward Corry. He said he was blinded by the lights of an oncoming car. The New York state couple left the scene of the accident at once on the pretext of taking the woman to a Corry doctor, and state police think the coupe may have been stolen.

Boyle Counts Blessing For Which We May Be Thankful

By HAL BOYLE

The election is over, and it is possible to turn on a radio about hearing a politician running for office on his vocal chords. The news is out. The new look isn't getting any yet.

Nobody has started a post season football contest called "the up bowl."

More stores are stocking two-wits suits.

It has been weeks since anybody is bitten by a mad English sparrow or struck by lightning in a room.

The goose hangs high in the id. Everybody is working, going to college, or waiting for the ny to call him up and end his using problem.

The hay fever season is over. The real pneumonia weather isn't set in.

The business depression predicted for 1949 hasn't arrived. The ancial cassandras who forecast have joined the political pollers on the mourner's bench—or are taking lessons in astrology.

The ghost is still walking every yday. Most bosses are meeting air payrolls on time, including a biggest of all—the government. It sends checks now to out one out of every six families.

Television programs are better. me nights not a single wrestling match shows up on the screen.

Lumber is getting plentiful. Soon a man will be able to afford to be buried in a pine coffin again.

The landlord has had a big dent in his hopes to jack up rents. So many motor cars are being turned out that by 1951 everybody who can't afford a car will be able to buy one anyway.

Russia hasn't taken another European country all year.

People aren't telling as many shaggy dog and talking horse stories as they were last Thanksgiving.

Lana Turner has quit wearing sweaters.

The U. S. Army, three years after the war, has a new medium tank in the field equal to anything the Germans had in 1939. American combat veterans would have been even more thankful if they had had a tank like that in the battle of the bulge.

At long last an etiquette book now says men don't have to take off their hats in office elevators when a woman enters.

Pretzels are in good supply. The United Nations delegates are still arguing about atom bombs—instead of throwing them. Yes, all in all, there's a lot to be thankful for. By rybody working, loving and living—in a land at peace.

Of course, there's a dark side to the picture. Uncle Sam owes $250,000,000,000, which is $1,731 apiece for every man, woman and child. But you know relatives—they're always in debt.

Why worry we're better off than the pilgrims, who borrowed this country from the Indians and never paid it back. Never mind the turkey. Pass the cranberries. I think I've got room for one more.

HOME BURNS
The Samuel Burney home near Blooming Valley, together with contents, was destroyed by fire on Friday, with a loss estimated at about $8,000. Burney was at work in Meadville and his mother, who lives with him, was visiting in Pittsburgh. No insurance was carried.

EXTEND PILE WALL
The Oil City Sand and Gravel Co. has made application to the U. S. Army engineers for permission to extend an existing steel sheet pile wall near its plan there. The wall would be extended 60 feet down stream then at a right angle 27 feet landward to an existing wood crib wall along the river.

TAKEN TO CLEVELAND
Donald Vandervoort who was accidentally shot through the body while hunting on Nov. 13, was taken to the Cleveland Clinic Hospital yesterday in the Tracy ambulance. He was accompanied by his mother and a brother, who will remain with him for a few days. The bullet pierced the youth's spine and he is paralyzed from the waist down. His physical condition, however, is said to be good.

SERIES OF ROBBERIES
Three filling station-commercial garage robberies apparently were committed by the same two persons early Friday morning, according to Meadville Police Chief E. C. Gibson. They occurred at Lawrence Powell's filling station, where $7 or $8 in cash was taken; the next-door Wyatt & Son garage where $27 in silver was taken and the Bob Goughner Inc., auto sales and service, where an undetermined sum was taken.

CIVIC CLUB PARTY
The North Warren Civic Club announces it has engaged Jimmy Swan, the ex-Marine actor-humorist, as guest speaker and principal entertainer for the annual Ladies' Night party to be held next Monday evening, December 6, at eight o'clock. Schedule calls for a short business session of club members, the entertainment and refreshments and all persons in the community are cordially invited to join in the fun.

WINS SECOND CAR
Kane Republican Lady Luck waved her magic wand and marked conclusion of a long run of illness and tough luck for Jack McMichael, 38, of 521 Janeway street. McMichael, former salesman and now working as a woods contractor, was making his ancient flivver "do" when a couple of weeks ago he was advised he had won a new Kaiser-Frazer at Warren, Pa. Thursday evening as he sat in his home relaxing after a Thanksgiving dinner, a telephone call came from a neighbor. Over the radio had come the word he had won a new Buick convertible coupe at Olean, N. Y. The news was verified by an official notification. He is the second Kane man to be listed as a double car winner. Some years ago, Lester Fox, now a Holgate employee, won a car given away at a local theater and a week later won another at Ridgway.

GOVERNOR DUFF OPENS CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Nov. 30—(AP)—The hottest rookie prospect on the world champion Cleveland Indians squad next spring may be Third Baseman Fred Marsh, who hit .305 for Oklahoma City last summer. Fred is a protégé of Cy Slapnicka, who hung the same "can't miss" tag on him that he once hung on Bob Feller. . . Of course, the Indians have a fair country third baseman in Ken Keltner, but Marsh's record may be the reason why Ken recently remarked: "I've got a sneaking suspicion that a guy named Keltner might go some place in a big deal before too long a time." . . . Branch Rickey, who had some unpleasant kickbacks from last year's trades, doesn't plan to do any business at the winter meetings unless it is selling off some surplus farm products. He'll have to sell some or plough them under . . . Papa bear George Halas denies that quarterback Bobby Layne is up for grabs. Wonder if George could think Sid Luckman is wearing out after only ten seasons?

Quote, Unquote
An unidentified newsmen at the Fordham-NYU game when the crowd cheered the Army-Navy tie: "They're all for the underdog—especially when they took Navy and twenty and a half points."

One-Minute Sports Page
Detroit's effort to land the 1952 or 1956 Olympic games seems to have run afoul of the mayor's refusal to approve a $2,000,000 contribution to build a stadium . . . Outfielder John Simmons, defeated by Washington out of the Dodgers chain, was drafted by Montreal a year ago from the Yankees' Norfolk, Va., farm. And he played at Yale in 1943 under Red Rolfe, now Tiger manager, after starting at NYU.

Governor James H. Duff, as Honorary Chairman of the Christmas Seal Sale in Pennsylvania, received his Seals from August Lehman Zemo, son of Dr. Peter Zemo and Dr. Ruby Lehman Zemo, of Middletown. Others present before the fireplace in the Governor's Office were Dr. Norris W. Vaux (left), State Secretary of Health; Col. Henry W. Shoemaker, Chairman of the State Seal Sale Sponsoring Committee, standing back of August (who impersonated the boy on the Seal) and Dr. M. C. Stayer (right), Director of the State Bureau of Tuberculosis Control. The Sale of Christmas Seals and Christmas Seal (Health) Bonds provides funds for the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society and its affiliated county organizations for the citizen fight which is carried on against tuberculosis in cooperation with the official health agencies, the medical profession, and other groups. With the strong support of Governor Duff, Dr. Vaux and Dr. Stayer are expanding and strengthening the official program of tuberculosis control throughout Pennsylvania.

FIVE APPROACHES TO A PROBLEM

Here are some events, outlined by James Marlow, Washington Associated Press feature writer, which show in the present college generation some growth of appreciation for a man as a man in spite of his color:

Levi Jackson, a Negro, unanimously was elected captain of the Yale football team.

Frank S. Jones, a Negro, was chosen student manager of the Harvard football team.

Thomas W. Gibbs, a Negro, was pledged a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity at Amherst College over the protest of the national fraternity. The Amherst chapter was suspended by the national fraternity before Gibbs was initiated.

Lafayette College refused to play in the Sun Bowl football game at El Paso, Tex., on New Year's Day because college officials said state laws there discriminated against its Negro halfback.

The New York Times and The Herald-Tribune thought the events important enough to treat them as outstanding news.

Some one from another country, seeing those events considered prime news, would realize racial tolerance in this country is far from widespread.

If it were, only Jackson's election would have been news, since the election of a Yale captain always is; the El Paso incident wouldn't have happened; and the other two events would not have been unusual enough to be news.

But all those events are only one of the five ways in which attacks are being made on the problem of racial and religious prejudice and discrimination, more and more every year:

1. By individual groups acting for themselves, such as the students at the schools mentioned. They've knocked a few bricks out of the walls of prejudice, if only in their own backyard.

2. By written and spoken words: In newspapers, magazines, on the radio and in discussion groups. And this includes education at home and in schools.

3. By individual states. The states themselves can try—and many have—in their own way to solve the problem which makes some of their citizens second class citizens because of their race, color or religious beliefs.

4. By the U. S. Supreme Court.

5. By the federal government—the President or Congress—issuing orders or passing laws which knock down discrimination.

The roots of prejudice in this country are so deep, that no one of the five attacks on it can solve the problem.

But all five, taken together, have a steady impact on, and against, discrimination and prejudice, and whittle some of them away.

OPPORTUNITY FOR YOUNG MEN

Captain Irvin Kays, commanding officer of Company I, 112th Infantry, has received official notice from General Daniel Strickler, commanding general of the 28th Division of Pennsylvania National Guard, that Governor James Duff has proclaimed that all young men between the ages of 17 and 18½ who enlist in the Pennsylvania National Guard would be exempt from selective service.

Young men in this age group should take advantage of this opportunity to comply with service obligations. They are given training with the latest type equipment by competent instructors, receive new uniforms, and are paid $100 a month plus pay for two hours of drill each week. Advancements in the new National Guard are many, and commissions as Second Lieutenant may be gained after one year's service and upon completion of Army Extension Courses.

Requirements for enlistment are to be physically qualified and to sign for a period of three years.

Captain Kays states that the Armory will be open for the remainder of the week from eight o'clock in the morning to nine o'clock each evening and a recruiting officer will be on hand to process enlistments. Any young men interested in this opportunity are invited to call at the Hickory street headquarters in Warren to inspect uniforms, equipment and to ask questions relative to enlistment in Company I.

One week remains in which to send in your entry for the Outdoor Christmas Home Lighting Contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. The judging will be made some time after December 13th. Seven big cash prizes are being offered. Entries may be filed on a coupon appearing in this issue, or may be telephoned either to the Chamber of Commerce office, 470, or the Times-Mirror, 1400.

I Cover the Waterfront

Here And There

This And That: A well known disciple of Isaac Walton, whose veracity up to now, is unquestioned, tells us that men fishing for suckers at the old gravel pit near the mouth of the Conewango creek are catching wall-eyed pike. Down at DuBois the board of Trade has arranged with traffic police to pay for one hour or over time parking for all out-of-town Christmas shoppers who find they are unable to complete their buying in the usual two-hour parking period. . . . Postmaster J. L. Bell appeals to local residents to plan to mail all Christmas greeting cards and gift packages just as early in December as possible. An even heavier flood of mail is expected this Christmas than during the record-breaking 1917 holiday season, when the local post office set a new high for cancelled pieces of mail. . . . Two young men well known in this area had an important part in the discovery of dinosaur footprints stretching across a mammoth piece of what is now sandstone, near Marienville, Forest county, which has a group of scientists on the hunt for an animal they believe may pre-date the dinosaurs by from 150 to 300 million years. They are Mike Kosinski, of Brookston, and his brother, James, Sheffield High school graduate, now employed at the Vertebrate Paleontology of the Carnegie Institute at Pittsburgh. Up to now the only things about which the scientists are sure is that the animal left 20 pairs of matching three-toed footprints stretching across a mammoth slab near Halltown. . . . The Route 6 headcave for residents of that section developed a new headache when property owners filed a protest with the Department of Highways at Harrisburg, and at the same time threatening to circulate a petition to be sent to the governor. Although the state has established a detour via Sheffield-Chaffee to Kane, it is necessary for rural residents only a few miles away to either travel the long detour or try and get through on the temporary passages used by the construction equipment. A message to the secretary of highways protesting "bungling of the contractors" and held that residents along the portion of the route under construction were "assured that the detour would be kept open" for them. Now they see that portions of the road are impassable, and deliberately kept in that condition to discourage traffic. . . . Warren's unusual Christmas displays and Yuletide street lighting are winning many flattering comments from townsfolk and visitors alike, including the army of hunters that have passed through the city the past few days. But one week remains in which to file your entry to compete in the Outdoor Christmas Home Decoration Contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Entries may be listed by filing out the coupon appearing elsewhere in this issue or telephoning to the C. of C. office, 470, or to the Times-Mirror, 1400.

Fashion note for Milady: "Purses are growing individual. Each costume calls for its own. Therefore the vogue on one made of a suit's fabric is new. A navy blue kasha one is bound with matching blue leather, leather lined and has a stunning gold monogram on it." . . . A navy overcoat sky prevented Warren district observers from seeing an eclipse of the moon. . . . Local banks were distributing circulars to acquaint the public with the new smaller-sized paper currency which the Treasury Department planned to put in circulation about July 1, 1949. An inquisitive deer roamed through the heart of Youngville, stopped for a few minutes on the school lawn, and finally disappeared in a woodlot. . . . Warren High Dragon gridders put the finishing touch on an unbeaten, untied season when they trounced Erie East, 26 to 6.

A debate on the topic, "Shall we socialize medicine?" featured a meeting of the Life Study Club in the YMCA. Eight members of the Irvine Rifle Club qualified as experts in firing over the Army Course "D" with the 30-caliber Springfield army rifle. They were William Abplanalp, F. Edmiston, Richard Lacy, Warren Childs, Carl Bengston, Walter Ruggle, Julius Schultz, and Grandon Snyder. . . . More than 100 members and guests attended the 15th anniversary banquet of the Warren Court, Catholic Daughters of America in the Woman's Club. . . . William Brown, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown, 111 Center street, suffered a severe head laceration in a coasting accident. . . . Twelve-year-old Mitchell Johnson, of Wilcox bagged a doe at the Johnson camp, six miles north of Kane. The roster of successful hunters in the district also included Lee McDowell, of Venturatown, who brought his deer down with a bow and arrow on the Farnsworth.

MacKenzie's Column

The British colonial office tells us that 3 percent of Britons think the United States still is one of the colonies.

I never heard that one before, but am not surprised. Having lived in England many years I encountered some extraordinary notions about my native land and its people.

For one thing the average Briton has no idea of the vast expanse of America. Because he is able to move about his snug little island so easily he is utterly flabbergasted to learn that it is more than a short ride by train from New York to Chicago, or to the west coast, for that matter.

Many folk believe that savage Indians still rove the plains near Chicago. They also think (perhaps due to our motion picture westerns) that the "wild west" is full of two-gun men who shoot from the hip. Gangsterism is a predominant feature of our life, they believe.

Quite apart from these strange beliefs, the British also find many oddities in our characteristics and habits.

It's all too true that there is widespread misunderstandings of the U. S. among Englishmen. This is due to lack of public interest. England is pretty much self contained in this particular.

Of course it is equally true that America has some strange ideas about Britain though my observation is that we know vastly more about England than she does about us. Apropos of this, Lord Halifax made a neat quip in a recent speech before the English speaking union in Britain. He said "the people in the United States are almost as pleased to see that Princess Elizabeth has had a son as we are," adding:

"That new feeling has come about because the American nation has, in the last few years, come to understand that George the third is really dead."

Talk about one world! What hope, when even two old allies like America and Britain don't know each other!

It strikes this column that it's about time we inaugurate some more international educational courses so that we can get acquainted. Many of the misunderstandings among nations are due to ignorance or to false ideas about the other fellow.

Sam Price, Renunciate: He Threw Away His Shoes

Inside his rattan hut in Santa Monica, Calif., Sam Price waters an orange tree. The robe is made of sackcloth.

NEA Service Santa Monica, Calif.—(NEA) Sam Price is Santa Monica's bare boy—a full bearded bare young man clad in an ankle girth robe made of sackcloth. But Sam Price who was a Royal Canadian Air Force pilot during war and more recently a labor organizer, is not trying to write long. He threw away his shoes and orthodox clothing seven months ago to become what he is a renunciate. He wants to nonstrate to an atomic world of d war and high prices that ma- tial things are unimportant. With half a dozen other renun- tates he has formed the Church Christian Living, with tempo- rary headquarters in the backyard Sam's home—a rattan hut four t high, seven feet long and ve feet wide that sits beneath ruava tree. Forming a legal church was essary according to Sam, so it the several bearded disciples could come and go freely with- out suddenly finding themselves locked up in some small town on a vagrancy charge. Having a church of one's own is apparently very necessary in Sam's business. Today Sam owns nothing. He does not toil, neither does he spin—unless it's necessary to work a few days in order to earn enough money to help someone in need. He has no post-war housing prob- lem. The current price or shoes does not clutter up his mind. Being barefoot in the coldest (California) weather hasn't even brought on a case of the sniffles. In fact, he needs nothing that oth- ers consider necessities. His diet consists of the "perfect foods" referred to in the Bible: fruits, nuts and vegetables, all unprepared. These perfect foods come to Sam perfectly free, ap- parently, but if he did have to pay for his daily subsistence, it would cost only a few cents. Sam says he never misses the charcoal broiled steaks of his past life, nor cheese cake, pork chops, beer, lemon pie or roast beef. He claims that after seven months of perfect foods, such worldly cus- sine is offensive to him. The renunciates of the Church of Christian Living don't want to make converts to their extreme way of life. Their aim, Price says, is to show by example that true peace and the richest happiness come from within a person. Once a day, when he's home, you'll find Sam watering the two small orange trees he set out near his rattan hut. That's not tell, he says, it's setting an example.

Dolores E. Martin Becomes Bride Of Donald J. Chiodo Rites Solemnized In County Church

At nine o'clock Saturday morning, November 20, in St. Joseph's church, Dolores E. Martin, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Martin of Pittsburgh, was united in marriage with Donald J. Chiodo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Chiodo, of this city.

Before an altar, decorated with white mums, Father Arthur Leon performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families and a few special friends.

Mrs. Donald Edinger, at the organ, played the wedding music and was accompanied by Miss Teresa Fumo, who sang "Ave Maria," "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother and O Lord, I Am Not Worthy."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gray satin two-piece frock, with which she wore a rhinestone bracelet and earrings, and carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and mums tied with white satin.

Leonard C. Johnson, Jamestown, acted as best man for his brother-in-law.

Dinner was served at one o'clock at the home of the bridegroom for the families and guests, with miniature bride and groom figures on the two-tiered cake which centered the attractively appointed table.

Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada, the newlyweds are at home in an apartment at 306 Laurel street.

Out of town guests at the wedding were from Pittsburgh and Jamestown.

The bride, a graduate of Divine Providence Academy School for Girls and the Allegheny General Hospital School of Nursing, is at present employed in psychiatric nursing at Warren State Hospital.

Mr. Chiodo, graduate of the local high school, served three years with the U. S. Army Air Forces and is employed by Sylvania Electric Products Company.

At a candlelight ceremony performed in the First Methodist church at Tidoute, Miss Florence Berlin became the bride of John Bailor, Jr., on Saturday, November 12, at eight o'clock in the evening. The Rev. William McCard, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, officiated for the single ring ceremony.

Mrs. Charlotte Rosequist was at the organ for nuptial selections and as accompanist for Lee Day, who sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "As the Years Go By." Given in marriage by her brother, George Berlin, the bride wore an attractive gown of heavy white satin, fashioned with long sleeves, pointed at the wrists, a lace off-the-shoulder neckline about a marquisette yoke. Her two-tiered veil of white net was trimmed with lace and attached to a crown finished in seed pearls and satin. She carried a bouquet of white roses with detachable center corsage.

Miss Christine Berlin, of Crown, was maid of honor for her sister. She appeared in a mauve satin gown and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jeanne Owens, of Tidoute, gowned in aqua taffeta, and Miss Mary Lorraine Hice, Sheffield, wearing yellow taffeta. Both carried Tallisman roses.

Howard Bailor was best man for his brother and ushers were Richard Knight and George Tipton. All three are of Tidoute.

The reception took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bailor, parents of the bridegroom.

For a going-away ensemble, the bride chose a black suit with gold accessories and a gray coat, also her corsage of white roses.

After a week's honeymoon in Canada, the newlyweds are at home to friends at Bonnie Brae.

Traditional Color of Met Opening s Televised For The First Time

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

New York, Nov. 30—(AP)—The rowd turned out at the 66-year-old Metropolitan opera house last night to hear opera and, perhaps, to observe a gala tradition. They heard—and they saw.

A couple of hundred others attended the opening of the New York opera season, too. They came to be seen—and it scarcely seemed worth all the effort.

The new season marked an important milestone in music, too, for television carried annual pageant to a living room and bar-and-grill audience estimated at 2,000,000—most of whom had never glimpsed the color-filled stage from a house seat.

It was a highly jeweled and excited audience which flocked to see Verdi's "Othello," a somber tale of murder and suicide.

Some veteran opera-goers said the choice of the heavier opera was deliberate—to discourage between-the-acts bar shenanigans which had stolen headlines in past years. Earlier Director Edward Johnson had appealed to the press to ignore publicity-seeking exhibitions.

Whatever the reason, it was an opening almost totally without incident, other than the arrival of celebrities in the glare of television floodlights and the flash of photographers' bulbs.

First night regulars—society people, stage and opera personalities—started to arrive shortly before 8 p. m. But the climax was reached for the bystander when Miss Margaret Truman made her appearance 10 or 15 minutes after the opera had started.

She was smiling and pretty in a full, draped dress of white silk, whose modest décolleté was broken by an oversize scarf—almost a stole of white fox. Her hostess was Miss Jane Watson, young daughter of Thomas J. Watson, wealthy New York industrialist.

The late arrival of the dowager Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt really was the signal, however, that another season of opera had started. And, as usual, Mrs. George Washington Kavanaugh arrived wearing a fantastic amount of jewelry, from emerald-and-diamond tiara to an armload of bracelets and four fingers full of enormous single-stoned rings.

Mrs. Betty Henderson, elderly army patrol who last year enlisted bar proceedings by being photographed with her leg on a table as greeted wildly. She had a classic headress which included Mme. Pompadour curls, but conducted herself with considerable decorum during her three-act spancy of a table in the bar.

The Dragons, coached by Joe Assa, won their opening game by a 50 to 20. Tonight's rap will be the first of a 20-game program for St. Marys.

Word received here from St. Marys indicates that the squad will just about match the tall ragon squad in height. The team so is comprised of veterans, including Bill Gorman, Nick Bulicic, Al Garner, Al Singer, Bill Hoff, an, Charlie Grafton, Don Wolf and Don Schauer.

Others who are bidding for St. Marys varsity berths are Jack rosel, Bill Ginter, Rudy Gec, ick Nicklas, Roger Herstritt, ane Yetzer, Gordon Daghir, Dick owry, Irvin Laird, John Hayes and Bob Scholder.

This will be the second season for St. Marys for Coach Harry ap Wolf.

Looking ahead, Warren will play a third home game in a row today night with Erie East supplying the opposition.

The same night will also see Oungsville playing its first home game against Hickory High, while heffield High will inaugurate its season at Mt. Jewett.

Revise Lineup For Bulldog Game With St. Bonaventure

Familiar faces will be in the Warren Bulldogs lineup when they tackle St. Bonaventure College basketball squad in an exhibition game in Beaty gym tomorrow night.

Game time is set for 8:30 p. m., with a preliminary scrap to start at 7:15 o'clock.

Coach Joe Hardy said his revised lineup for the Bulldogs will include Deacon Stankey, who played here some years ago with the crack Warren Penns, as well as Andy Olsen, Dan Krouse, Moose Bellingham, Frank Bohun, Ziggy Markowitz and Johnny Lipchick. This squad has been playing for the past several seasons in the Corry and Erie districts and ranks as one of the district's best independent floor combines.

Holdovers from the Bulldog squad which played Westminster and Geneva College teams earlier this month will be Ted Wybernac, smooth floor performer from Jamestown, and Freddie Schwab, twining Corry pivot.

The addition of the new players is expected to add considerable strength to the Bulldogs, and make them a strong opponent, not only for their remaining exhibition tilts against the cream of the district college clubs, but also a top-ranking team in the All-American Professional Basketball loop which gets under way soon.

Michigan Again Leads As College Grid Team of Year

New York, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Eighty Michigan is college football's "team of the year."

As a climax to a series of dazzling successes, the Wolverines held the No. 1 place today in The Associated Press' final poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

They beat out their old rival for national honors—Notre Dame—unslotted that gave them 3,448 points to 3,325 for the Irish.

In the final regular season poll of 1947 it was Notre Dame on top with Michigan a close second.

This time, however, the unbeaten and untied Wolverines received 192 first place votes of the 387 casting ballots while the Irish drew only 7.

Notre Dame will try for its 22nd straight victory and its 28th game without a defeat Saturday against southern California at Los Angeles.

North Carolina, with only a tie against its record, moved up to third position with 2,281 votes in the final standings as Army, surprisingly tied 21-21 by Navy, fell from third to sixth place with 1,799 ballots.

California held fourth with an even 2,000 and was followed in order by Oklahoma, 1,906, Army, Northwestern, 1,421, Georgia, 879, Oregon, 769 and Southern Methodist, 683.

Seven of the first ten will see action in post-season bowl games.

North Carolina and Oklahoma clash in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans. California and Northwestern are Rose Bowl foes at Pasadena. Oregon and Southern Methodist meet in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas. Georgia opposes Texas, which didn't land in the first twenty, in the Orange Bowl at Miami.

Elmer Morrow, Motor Tank Salesman, fills his gasoline truck at the Allentown plant.

What should a man work For?...

Put that question to Elmer Morrow, here, and he'll answer about like this:

"Well, you could say a man works for a living, but there's more to it than just that. A man has his self-respect to keep. He wants to work at a job he likes. He wants to do something useful. He wants fair pay and steady hours—with some time to himself and his family. He wants a chance to get ahead and he wants to save some money. And he wants some security in case of accident or sickness. Then, when his working years are done, he wants to know he can retire on an annuity."

Today, in Esso Standard Oil Company of Pennsylvania and affiliated companies, 29,000 men and women have jobs which offer exactly these things. They have such jobs because of a company policy that was set up over 30 years ago—and developed side-by-side with our workers ever since. It is a policy based on the belief that the heart of a business is its people—that the best possible jobs attract the best possible workers.

Workers in this company today have everything outlined in the statement above—including vacations with pay, sickness benefits, cash savings in a Thrift Plan, and the opportunity to retire with income for life.

But this policy hasn't grown from "generosity" alone. It's a practical, common-sense business policy, and a good one.

Our 29,000 workers, for instance, have now been with us on the average for almost 14 years—8,500 of them over 20 years.

Right now—with the demand for oil products far higher than ever before, it means a lot—to us and to you—to have a staff of experienced, steady, loyal workers like these pushing our facilities to the limit to get you the oil products you want—good products at fair prices!

Pitt Is Still Selection Of New Director

Pittsburgh, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Somebody is going to be handed a big job today—the task of pushing the University of Pittsburgh back up among the nation's football powers.

Only a few know now who has the inside track for that job, which carries with it the title of Pitt Athletic Director. However, many believe the official finger will be pointed at Capt. Tom Hamilton, genial athletic director at the U. S. Naval Academy.

Tom isn't talking. Informed a few days ago he was the rumored first choice, he said merely: "I'm flattered to be considered."

If Hamilton was the man favored at yesterday's meeting of Pitt's athletic committee and undergraduate council, there's little question he'll have to work out with the navy—his release from the gold braid.

Pitt had announced it would reveal its choice yesterday. However, Chancellor Rufus H. Fitzgerald said: "Final decisions by all parties on this matter have not yet come about."

He added the decision would be announced immediately after an executive committee meeting of the university trustees today.

Chancellor Fitzgerald said the group which met yesterday discussed setting up an integrated, correlated program which will tie in the functions of the athletic director to the overall physical education setup of the university.

Van Buren Leads Selection Of National Gridders

Philadelphia, Nov. 30.—(AP)—It isn't hard to figure how the Philadelphia Eagles won the eastern division championship of the National Football League. Just look at the individual NFL statistics released today.

No less than three members of the powerful Birds—Steve Van Buren, Tommy Thompson and Joe Muka—lead individual departments while end Pete Pone is a close second in another.

The Van Buren story has a new angle. The Louisiana cruncher finally was stopped Sunday but not by human hands. He slipped while running and injured a knee. It was a tough break for Van Buren who looked like a cinder to break two NFL standards this season.

ARMY IS AWARDED EASTERN HONORS

New York, Nov. 30.—(AP)—For the fourth time in five years, Army has been awarded the Lambert trophy, emblematic of eastern football supremacy.

Writers and broadcasters gave Army 112 votes compared with six for Penn State and one for Cornell. Earl Blaik, Army coach, will accept the trophy Thursday.

CURIOUS, YOUR ASKING ABOUT MONEY, FLINT. MY GRANDMOTHER MUST HAVE HALF A MILLION DOLLARS.

WHO ARE HER HEIRS?

AS FAR AS I KNOW, CUDDLES—CHRISTOPHER MALLOY—AND I. WE'RE HER GRANDCHILDREN AND HER ONLY RELATIVES.

In Deerville, at the home of Mrs. Althea Malloy.

ONE SATISFACTION OF BEING RICH, MR. ARMISTEAD, IS KNOWING YOU CAN LEAVE YOUR MONEY ANYWHERE YOU WANT AND CUT SOMEONE ELSE OFF.

AS YOUR ATTORNEY, HOWEVER, I'D SAY YOU WERE A TRIFLE ROUGH ON YOUNG MR. CHRISTOPHER.

HOW DOES IT FEEL TO SET DOWN TO BREAKFAST WITHOUT A HANGOVER, WINDY?

WONDERFUL, AS I'M OFF THE STUFF FOR GOOD! IF I COULD JUST GET SOME MONEY TOGETHER TO GET BACK IN BUSINESS...

VERA, TELL ME SOMETHING MORE ABOUT YOUR HUSBY'S GRANDMOTHER. DOESN'T SHE HAVE BEAUCOUP MONEY?

YES, NOT THAT YOU COULD TOUCH ANY OF IT. SHE'LL BE OFF BECAUSE I'M ADDING ANOTHER DOLLAR TO THE FAMILY. CUDDLES HAS HAD TWO, YOU KNOW.

AS A MATTER OF FACT THOUGH, THE OLD DEAR HAS A WEAKNESS FOR REFORMED DRUNKS.

HMM!

SO THE RICH ALTHEA MALLOY HAS A WEAKNESS FOR REFORMED DRUNKS! MAYBE I CAN TOUCH HER FOR A LOAN TO GET A NEW START.

WILL THIS FIVE-SPOT GET ME A BUS TICKET TO DEERVILLE? I'VE FORGOTTEN JUST HOW FAR IT IS.

IT'S 200 MILES STRAIGHT SOUTH, YOU'LL GET A BUCK CHANGE.

A traveler with more than $5 to spend can find a more luxurious way of getting to Deerville.

I'LL HAVE ANOTHER ONE, STEWARD. IT'S KIND OF THIRSTY WHERE I'M GOING.

YESSUH.

I WONDER HOW MUCH THIS QUEER OLD DUMP OF GRANDMOTHER MALLOY'S WOULD BRING ON THE MARKET TODAY.

WELL, CHRISTOPHER! WHAT BRINGS YOU HERE?

IF YOU'RE GOING TO GET MARRIED FOR THE THIRD TIME, IT WON'T CHANGE MY DECISION ABOUT MY MILL.

IT'S NOT THAT, I KNOW MY TWO DIVORCES WERE A BIG-UP TO YOU. I'LL TELL YOU MY NEWS AFTER DINNER.

NO NEED TO BE SO RIGID, GRANDMOTHER. I BRING YOU SOME INTERESTING FAMILY NEWS.

DINNER AT YOUR HOUSE, GRANDMOTHER, HAS ALWAYS BEEN A GOURMET'S DELIGHT!

STOP TRYING TO BUTTER ME UP, CHRISTOPHER! TELL ME THE NEWS YOU BROUGHT!

IS ANY GRANDSON, ROBIN ARCHER, GOING TO ADD ANOTHER MEMBER TO HIS FAMILY?

HARDLY! POBIN AND VERA ARE GETTING A DIVORCE.

A DIVORCE? ROBIN AND VERA!

Meanwhile, on a bus approaching Deerville...

BY THE TIME I GET THERE IT'LL BE TOO LATE TO CALL AND I'VE GOT NO MONEY LEFT FOR A HOTEL. GUESS I'LL HAVE TO THINK OF SOMETHING.

Mail Out-of-State Christmas Cards and Parcels Dec. 10

Meet the man who's going to receive several thousand cheery Christmas greeting cards this year—and is very unhappy about the whole situation.

He has charge of the post office's undeliverable mail—"mixels," in the colorful jargon of the mail carriers.

Last year, the local post office played reluctant host to a large quantity of other people's holiday mail, left homeless because of faulty addressing. Nationally, the toll of undeliverable Christmas cards, letters and packages ran into the millions.

Postmaster J. K. Bell points out that careless addressing spells trouble for the sender, as well as extra headaches for postal clerks at a season when they're already working around the clock to keep the holiday mails moving.

"Each year, thousands of long friendships suddenly turn chilly when an eagerly-awaited Christmas card or gift fails to arrive," he observes.

So if you want to keep your colorful and warm-hearted Christmas greetings from coming to rest in the Dead Letter Office this year, you'd better heed the Postmaster's detailed advice for Yuletide mailings.

"Mail promptly," he urges. All packages and all Christmas cards for out-of-state delivery should be in the post office by December 10, and all cards for local delivery should be mailed at least a week before Christmas.

"Affix stamps firmly. Don't just give stamps a lick and a pat—they may fall off en route."

"Address plainly and completely," he emphasizes. "That means the full name, house number, street, name of city, zone number and the state."

"Remember, much holiday mail is delivered by emergency carriers who haven't the faintest idea where 'The Wilson Family' lives on Oak street. There may even be two or three different carrier routes serving different parts of one street."

"Don't ever put 'City.' Write out 'Warren, Pa.' If a Christmas card marked 'City' happens to slip into the wrong mail pouch, it may end up in the Dead Letter Office in Los Angeles or Jersey City."

The Postmaster recommends sending all Christmas cards by first-class mail which means with regular 3-cent stamps.

First-class mail is entitled to "directory service" by skilled post office clerks who will try to trace down addressees who have moved since you mailed your Christmas cards last year.

Only first-class mail will be forwarded from one address to the other or returned to the sender without collection of additional postage if the addressee is not located. It will come back, that is, provided you make sure to place your return address on each Christmas card you mail.

However, if you decide anyhow to mail your Christmas cards with 1½-cent stamps—keep your tongue in your cheek and off that flap! Third-class mail must not be sealed and must not contain personal messages, although a handwritten signature is permissible. Only one effort is made to deliver it—and if the address is incorrect or incomplete, your cheerful but misdirected Christmas card will spend a lonely Yuletide in the Dead Letter Office.
